

Challenging Conversations

Kids Ministry Staff should lead challenging and potentially difficult conversations. Volunteers should bring their concerns to a Kids Staff Member who can help navigate next steps, including communication with the parents.

Situations include, but are not limited to:

- Suspected abuse
- Suspected illness (example: lice, pink eye, fever, etc.)
- Violence (example: biting another child)