

INTERN

ROLE DESCRIPTION

MINISTRY TEAM: ONLINE PRODUCTION
CAMPUS OR MINISTRY TEAM: CENTRAL

MINISTRY EXPERIENCE SUMMARY

The Online Production Intern is a Central Support steward of our mission to introduce people to Jesus and the life-changing adventure with him. Their primary focus is gaining leadership experience in the arts – specifically in online production – while engaging in ministry elements that best fit their giftings.

MINISTRY EXPERIENCES:

Gain a full understanding of these leadership responsibilities and execute per the direction of their supervisor:

- Recruiting and developing the Online Production DreamTeam for Weekend Services and events. This includes ensuring the DreamTeam member
 - Completes Growth Track
 - Receives full training before being scheduled to serve on their own
 - Is informed of the weekend standards of execution
- Scheduling the weekend DreamTeam and ensuring every open position for the weekend is fulfilled.
- Building community and cultivating spiritual growth within the Online Production DreamTeam
- Carrying vision for weekend programming and creative direction to the Online Team and executing with excellence.
- Assisting the Director of Online Production in planning content and service flow specific to the Online Campus.
- Attending weekly Arts Department meetings.
- Working with Central Production Staff and Perrysburg Production Director to ensure all technical needs for the weekend services are met.
- Learning to lead online run-throughs.
- Assisting with media uploads for online platforms.
- Contributing to the Central Support creative process as needed.
- Assisting with Central Production projects.
- Communicate online-specific needs, feedback, and issues to Central Support via the established protocols.
- Learning to execute set design changes under the direction of Central Support.